Andrzej Malec has been supplying us with top quality bone for some years now. We are very happy with the quality of product he has provided as well as the professionalism of his service. What's more our customers are consistently pleased with the high standard of the bone on the products we make for them. We will continue to utilise Andrzej's services far into the future with the security of knowing that when it comes to the supply of this material, which is crucial to our business, we are in safe hands.

Yours sincerely,

Andrew Dolby
Managing Director.
